Qualifications

Election inspectors must meet the following criteria: Election inspectors are appointed by the governing body for a two-year term, which runs from January 1 of an even-numbered year through December 31 of the subsequent odd-numbered year. Wis. Stat. 7.31(4). Election inspectors must be able to read, write, speak and understand the English language. Election inspectors are required to receive training from the municipal clerk within the two years preceding the election event at which the inspector intends to work. Election inspectors may not be a candidate for any office to be voted on at an election at which they serve. Wis. Stat. 7.30 (2) (a). Election Inspectors must be qualified electors of the county served by the polling place in which they work. When a political party is involved in the nomination of election inspectors, appointments are made with regard to party affiliation. Election Inspectors may not serve at elections where they are a candidate on the ballot.

Wis. Stats. 6.03 Disqualification of electors

(1) The following persons shall not be allowed to vote in any election and any attempt to vote shall be rejected:

(a) Any person who is incapable of understanding the objective of the elective process or who is under guardianship, unless the court has determined that the person is competent to exercise the right to vote;

(b) Any person convicted of treason, felony or bribery, unless the person's right to vote is restored through a pardon or under s. 304.078 (3).

(2) No person shall be allowed to vote in any election in which the person has made or become interested, directly or indirectly, in any bet or wager depending upon the result of the election.

(3) No person may be denied the right to register to vote or the right to vote by reason that the person is alleged to be incapable of understanding the objective of the elective process unless the person has been adjudicated incompetent in this state. If a determination of incompetency of the person has already been made, or if a determination of limited incompetency has been made that does not include a specific finding that the subject is competent to exercise the right to vote, and a guardian has been appointed as a result of any such determination, then no determination of incapacity of understanding the objective of the elective process is required unless the guardianship is terminated or modified under s. 54.64.
